THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT.

Prizes amounting to $12,500 will be awarded in Paris in October at the conclusion of a series of contests to stimulate the use of kerosene as automobile fuel.

For the convenience of travelers there has been invented a pocket electric heater, taking current from a 120-volt socket, which will boil a quart of water in three minutes.

German wine growers are encouraged by their government to distribute heating material and other live houses in their vineyards to attract feathered foes of lice and pests.

For advertising purposes hollow bamboo, made of semi-transparent material on which lettering may be painted and containing reflector bulked electric lights, have been patented.

JEWELER HURLS AN ANVIL AT HEAD OF ASSAILANT

That Was After He had been Punched. Then Swears Out Complaint and has Opponent Fined.

Nasim Rose, manufacturer of gold and silver filigree jewelry on South Second street, appeared to complain against C. Labadie, a former employee, before Police Judge George R.
Craig this morning. He accused Labadie of punching him. Labadie was fined $10.

Labadie and Rose came to blows in the jewelry factory Saturday evening.
Labadie is said to have accused Rose of "saying things" about him, and the two flared up. According to the testimony Labadie punched Rose and the latter hurled a jeweler's anvil at his assailant.
Subsequently Rose appeared at the police station and swore out a warrant.

ALBUQUERQUE LAD WINS HONORS AS A PLAYWRIGHT

John Gagner Nabbed Although He Sped Away When Ordered to Stop. Fined $10 in Court.

The dragnet thrown out by the police to round up motorcycle speeders is still working, as Joe Gagner found to his cost last night. He was fined ten dollars by Police Judge George R.
Craig this morning on complaint of Officer Martin Byrnes.

Byrnes caught Gagner burning up West Central avenue. He covered the stretch between Robinson park to Twelfth street at 25 miles an hour, Byrnes said, and Officer Ed Donahue corroborated Byrnes' statement. Gagner paid no attention to Byrnes' first command to stop, the policeman said, but he was nabbed later and ordered to appear in court.

The police are maintaining unrelaxed vigilance against the speeders. Nobody will receive any favor at the hands of the auto squad. Every violator of the speed law caught will be compelled to face the court.

Under the program laid down the session will be a humdrum one from the popular viewpoint, with much reading of ordinances by the clerks and discussion of sections by the members.

ONE INSANE MAN IS GUARD OVER ANOTHER

Two insane men at Las Vegas aboard train No. 10 this morning attracted attention because of the ingenious way in which the deputy sheriff in charge of them had lightened his task of guarding the couple. He had set one of the men to watching the other. The "guard" was too busy with his job to give trouble on his own account and the other "nut" was too afraid of the "guard" to move without permission.

Most Prompt and Effectual Cure for Bad Colds.

When you have a bad cold you want a remedy that will not only give relief, but effect a prompt and permanent cure. A remedy that is pleasant to take, a remedy that contains nothing injurious. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all these requirements. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectora-tion, opens the secretions and restores the system to a healthy condition.
This remedy has a worldwide sale and can always be depended upon. Sold by all druggists.
